

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

MARCH 1, 1858.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. FOSTER submitted the following

REPORT.

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the petition of Joseph Dowd, late a private in the army of the United States, having had the same under consideration, do now respectfully report:

That the petitioner is now in the receipt of the highest rate of pension allowed for full disability in his grade in the service, and unless there should be an alteration in the general law, your committee are of opinion that his pension ought not to be increased. They therefore recommend the passage of the accompanying resolution:

Resolved, That the prayer of the petitioner be not granted.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

March 1, 1888.—Ordered to be printed.

Mr. Tamm submitted the following

REPORT

The Committee on Finance, to which was referred the petition of Joseph Ford, for a pension in the army of the United States, having had the same under consideration, do now respectfully report:

That the petitioner is now in the receipt of the highest rate of pay allowed for this disability in his grade in the service, and unless there should be an alteration in the general law, your committee are of opinion that his pension ought not to be increased. They therefore recommended the passage of the accompanying resolution:

Resolved, That the grant of the petition be not granted.

It is respectfully suggested that a review of the petition be made by the Committee on Finance, which resolution is as follows: (See Am. State Papers, Finance, vol. 1, p. 171.)

The Committee on Finance, to which was referred the petition of Joseph Ford, for a pension in the army of the United States, having had the same under consideration, do now respectfully report:

That the petitioner is now in the receipt of the highest rate of pay allowed for this disability in his grade in the service, and unless there should be an alteration in the general law, your committee are of opinion that his pension ought not to be increased. They therefore recommended the passage of the accompanying resolution:

Resolved, That the grant of the petition be not granted.

It is respectfully suggested that a review of the petition be made by the Committee on Finance, which resolution is as follows: (See Am. State Papers, Finance, vol. 1, p. 171.)